ABOUT THE CAMP

HISTORY

Camp Mackinicholea has been operating on its present site as a non-profit society since 1952. It is run as a United Church Camp open to all faiths and denominations. Over the last 50 years, generations of individuals, families and groups have participated in building a rich legacy of history and tradition.

TODAY

Camp Mackinicholea is perfectly situated on a beautiful peninsula surrounded by the clean, clear water of Long Island Lake. We offer an exciting program in July and August that includes water sports, nature skills, adventure games, Christian Fellowship and team building experiences. The camp is also available for rent by families, schools and community groups. A wide variety of groups have enjoyed our beautiful site and excellent facilities for outdoor recreation, family reunions and retreats. If you are interested in a unique experience at Camp Mackinicholea, call us to see what we can offer you.

MISSION & VISION

To provide campers of all ages with the opportunity to experience God by:

- Exploring with respect the wonders of creation
- Building and renewing friendships
- Enjoying safe and challenging recreation
- Growing in faith in a Christian community
